FACTORY NEW

Skytron Hand / Pendant Control Cover. Does your 2nd-generation Skytron hand control have torn or missing rubber? This is a common problem after years of use.

We built an easy-to-install cover that wraps your control, brings back its look, and adds extra protection. If your pendant control still looks good, this cover helps keep it that way. In addition, it fits most Skytron hand controls with a blue face.

Installation and removal are both quick and simple. This cover also comes with a 90-day replacement warranty.
