

Aaron Bovie Monopolar Footswitch for Model 1250, 2250 and 3250 | BV-1253B

FACTORY NEW

The Aaron Bovie Monopolar Footswitch Model BV-1253B is designed for use with Aaron Bovie electro-surgical generator models 1250, 2250, and 3250. This footswitch provides reliable control of electro-surgical functions during surgical procedures, enabling precise activation when needed.

Stock Photo - Options May Vary

The footswitch features an ergonomic design that promotes comfort and ease of use for surgical team members, helping maintain focus during procedures. Its durable construction is engineered to withstand the demands of high-performance surgical environments.

Suitable for both routine and complex surgical applications, this footswitch enhances surgical efficiency and safety by delivering dependable performance and precise control of electro-surgical functions.

Brochure and images are a general overview of the product. Actual product options may vary.*

Toll-Free 800-627-3215 | Local 813-740-8640

salesteam@venturemedical.com

View this product online →