FACTORY NEW

MCM 522 – Stainless Steel Utility Table from Mid Central Medical gives medical teams strength, reliability, and smart storage. MCM builds this table with high-quality parts, so it performs well day after day. It features durable 16-gauge #304 stainless steel construction that stays strong and resists rust and corrosion.

In addition, the table has three large drawers on smooth glides. Staff can quickly access tools and supplies while keeping them secure. As a result, essentials stay organized and ready during busy procedures.

Meanwhile, a three-sided guardrail surrounds the top surface. It keeps items in place and helps prevent spills and drops.
